To day the customary joss pidgin is going on, and the public are allowed to see the operation of smalting, and both Chinese and Malays seem highly interested. The system of smalting is exactly as done in Perak, the genr consisting of a small clay furnace of some 18 inches in diameter incide measurement, and surrounded by iron bands, standing on a tripod with iron legs about two feet high; the draught is supplied by the ordinary Chinese blower, a wooden cylinder 15 in. in diameter, with a valve at either end; a relay of teen men belonging to the American ship Re- coolies is necessary to work the piston rod. and very hard work it is. THE VINTAGE PROSPECTS

From almost every vine growing district on

Bordeaux.—Fine weather prevails at the commencement of the gathering, but this was a long way from finished when heavy rains and cold weather set in, and in consequence the produce of the Bordenux districts does not come "Medoc," and comparatively smaller in the "Palus," and all vineyards producing inferior grades. There are some Wines possessing good body, and a fair rich colour, while others are at present green and unrips. Of the 18-8's many are deficient in body and saccharine, though free from soidity, and possessing bonquet and colour. We are disposed to think that their development will show satisfactory results, as has often been the case with. Wines showing analogous characteristics in former years. 1897's we confidently recommond as full-flavored, with plenty of body, sweetness, and colour.

Burgundy.-The growers' estimate of a prebalds bad year, in consequence of service sterms in July, seem to have been realised. These storms devestated whole estates. Some partial-We notice from the Siamess Government ly escaped, and in these the yield varies from Tarregona and Spanish Red Wine .- Here again wet weather prevailed during the gathering, and owing to a wet-summer the vines suffered from mildew. Shippers have to depend upon old stocks for present supplies, and prices have advanced from £1 to £3 per pipe; large contracts are not taken.

Of the fature prospects of the Alto Douro we are able to write more hopefully than last year; many new plantations of American Vines are to be found, upon which are grafted the favourite old Portuguese Vines, Mourisco, Alvarilhio, Touriga, Bastardo, and others. That pest, the Phylloxera, is being successfully kept in check in the vineyards where the proprietors still have money, and we hope that the worst days for the country which produces the finest Wines in the world are gone. POST-OFFICE & NOTICES.

When Correspondence has been mis-sent or delayed (both of which are liable to happen occasionally) all that the addressee need do is to note on the cover, Sent to _____, or Received at 7.p.m., or as the case may be, and forward in without any other writing whatever, to the Postmaster-General. This should be acted on the first time cause of complaint occurs; it is a mistake to let such matters pass for fear of 131 giving trouble, a course which generally given more trouble in the end:
